I think you are the greatest. I recall how you held my hand.
You help me to do better, and I know you're my number one fan. Oh.

Thanks, Mom, for giving your all. Because of you, this world's a better place.

When I hurt, you give comfort. Empathize, yeah – you cry when I cry.
And we'll see all the good times. When I win, I see you smile inside. Oh.

Thanks, Mom, for all that you've done. You've shaped my life with selfless love and grace.
Thanks, Mom, for giving your all. Because of you, this world's a better place.

You help me with my problems. Cover me with your care and concern.
Help me plan for the future. Troubles come, but I know where to turn. Oh.
